to an Affordable Home
in Cranbury, NJ

Sponsored by Cranbury Housing Associates, Inc.

Applications will be accepted on a "first come, first served" basis.

Step One: Preliminary Applications

Persons interested in buying or renting are asked to complete a preliminary application for affordable housing. Completed applications should be mailed directly to:

Cranbury Housing Associates, Inc.
216 Rockingham Row
Princeton Forrestal Village
Princeton, NJ 08540

Once a preliminary determination of eligibility is made, CHA will notify applicants as to the status of their applications. The names of initially eligible applicants may be subject to a random selection process, and will be placed on a waiting list in the order in which their Preliminary Application was received.

Step Two: Certification of Eligible Households

When a sales or rental home of the appropriate size and price range becomes available, eligible households shall be notified in the order in which they appear on the waiting list.

A full Application for Affordable Housing, a request for supporting documentation and an invitation for an appointment will be issued to the applicant at that time. In addition, rental applicants will be asked to authorize CHA to perform a credit and landlord verification. All applicants will be required to respond in a timely manner. After the interview and upon the satisfactory review of the application, supporting documentation (and credit report, when applicable), a final certification for affordable housing will be determined. A deposit of $100 will be required of all applicants when they submit their final application for review. In the event that the application is not approved, the full amount will be promptly returned. If the application is approved, and the applicants accepts the apartment, the deposit will be credited as partial payment of the Security Deposit required for the apartment. If the applicant is approved, but does not accept the apartment, the deposit will be forfeited as an application fee, and will not be returned.

Step Three: Contract and Closing

Certified applicants for rental housing will be asked to sign a lease agreement, community policies, and security deposit agreement and reserve their apartment by making a nonrefundable deposit of one month's rent. Certified eligible purchasers shall negotiate the terms of a sales contract, within the parameters of the affordable housing program, with the seller of the home or the seller's real estate agent. CHA does not provide financing, and all mortgage arrangements shall be the sole responsibility of the purchaser. All rental and sales closings will take place immediately upon the availability of the home for occupancy.
